

BRUSH UP YOUR AVIATION ENGLISH

and get ready for

PROFESSIONE VOLARE offers a new opportunity to dive into a full-immersion 3-hour workshop on the main aspects featured in the TEA exam.

So...let your English take off now!!!

How is the BRUSH UP workshop structured?

The workshop is divided in two sessions and will be held for a small group with a minimum of 2 people and a maximum of 4 in order to be able to provide a focused preparation.

Session I - An hour and a half

- How to talk about yourself, your personal studying and professional career in a fluent way;
- How to answer questions about yourself during interviews consistently using verb tenses suggested in the questions;
- How to discuss general aviation topics and different phases of flight spontaneously and with confidence;
- Aspects of vocabulary, pronunciation and grammar will be developed.

Session II - An hour and a half

- This session will focus on Listening comprehension and interactive skills;
- Developing the ability to ask a range of questions to manage a number of typical and unexpected situations;
- Making suggestions in several ways;
- Vocabulary and structure of the language will be extended.

Because of the limited number of places available it's necessary to book your place 4 days before the date of the workshop at the latest.
